

Sinclair Stations
decision to run a program such as
"Stolen Honor" as a
"Special Broadcast"
interrupting regular programing, does not serve the public in a democracy such as the United States of America. I am aware that Sinclair Media
is conservative and
leans to the right,
what is troubling
about this is that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Not a select public, but the public at large.

It has become tiring
and exasperating how manipulative media
groups such as Sinclair have become.
Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.

Kathleen
McClutchy-Gale